

POLIMODA

Regulations of the selection process and awarding of n. 1 scholarship for attendance of the Polimoda Short Course in Costume Design, in collaboration with Ellen Mirojnick (winter edition) – beginning in the academic year 2023/2024 (the February 2024 edition)

The Association Ente per le Arti applicate alla Moda e al Costume (hereinafter referred to as Polimoda), with registered office in Florence, Via Curtatone, 1, for the purpose of favouring the initiation of new studies and ideas that serve as inspiration for creative, artistic and economic development in the interests of society as a whole has decided to offer n. 1 partial scholarship to the value of € 2.750,00 for the attendance of the Polimoda Short Course in Costume Design in collaboration with Ellen Mirojnick (Mentor of the Polimoda Short Course – Winter Edition).

The partial scholarships will cover 50% of the tuition fee of the course. The remaining 50% of the tuition fee will be paid by the candidate to Polimoda.

The part of the tuition fee of the Polimoda Short Course not covered by the partial scholarship, which totals € 2.750,00, is to be paid to Polimoda by and no later than 18/12/2023;

Should the selected candidate fail to pay Polimoda said amount according to the abovementioned instructions, the selected candidate will not be able to benefit from the scholarship and it will be awarded on the basis of the ranking working down the list, as indicated in the present Regulations.

The Polimoda Short Courses, which will be held in English, will have the duration of 1 month and will be composed of classroom lessons, starting on 19/02/2024 and ending on 16/03/2024.

The best student will have the opportunity to undertake an internship in the film industry.

Please note that the scholarship does not cover housing and living expenses or any other extras.

Polimoda reserves the right to not assign the scholarships.

General Admission Requirements

This course is aimed at fashion students that want to expand their knowledge of the costume design field.

In order to apply for the scholarship, applicants must meet the following requirements. They must:

- have a previous knowledge of fashion design;
- have at least B2¹ level English;
- be no older than 30 (thirty) years old;
- have a Secondary school (high school) diploma or equivalent.

Students who are already enrolled in a Polimoda Master course or Undergraduate course cannot participate in the selection process.

It is only possible to apply for one scholarship among those made available by Polimoda.

It is not possible to apply simultaneously for this scholarship and for one of those made available for Undergraduate or Master courses.

It is understood that any enrolment discounts and/or financial incentives recognised and applied during the enrolment process, and/or during the academic year, will not be recognised nor applied in addition to the scholarship described in this Regulation.

Selection process

In order to apply for the scholarship, candidates must select the Polimoda Short Course in Costume Design and complete the following steps:

- Application Form submission via the Course page on Polimoda's website (please note, select "BANK TRANSFER" in the box "Payment Preferences");
- Certificate or (self-certification attached to the present Regulations) of English level (B2 required) must be sent via e-mail to scholarship@polimoda.com.

¹ of the common European framework of reference for the knowledge of languages

Polimoda

Via Curtatone, 1 – 50123 Firenze, Italy
Tel. +39 055 275061 Fax +39 055 2750720
VAT 03758580488 Fiscal Code 94015750485
www.polimoda.com

POLIMODA

- Curriculum vitae and Motivation letter (1-page max) must be sent via e-mail to scholarship@polimoda.com.
- Interview with a Course Leading Teacher, following which candidates will be assessed by a system of marks out of thirty.

Only the candidates who obtain a minimum score of 25/30 will be considered for the successive selection phases.

Evaluation

The selection for the assignment of the scholarship will be carried out at the sole discretion of an admission committee composed of the Head of Department and/or Department Supervisor and two Course Leading Teachers (hereinafter "the admission committee").

The admission committee will draw up a ranking of the top candidates, taking into account their effective merits, curriculum vitae, motivation letter and the score obtain during the aforementioned selection process.

The scholarship will be awarded to the candidate listed at the top of the ranking. In case of equal merit amongst the candidates, precedence will be given to the candidate who first submitted the application form.

Deadline and notifications

In order to participate to the selection process, candidates are required to apply for the scholarship from 06/11/2023 to 22/11/2023.

The result of the selection process will be announced to the selected candidate no later than 30/11/2023.

The selected candidate will have to give written confirmation to Polimoda of his/her intention to attend the course and accept the scholarship no later than 06/12/2023. Should the candidate listed at the top of the ranking forgo, or be unable to benefit from the scholarship for any reason, the scholarship will be awarded on the basis of the ranking working down the list.

Before the commencement of the Polimoda Short Course, the selected candidate must sign the course enrolment contract and the Polimoda Student Regulations relative to the programme for which the scholarship is assigned (please refer to the website www.polimoda.com).

The aforementioned documents will be applicable to all the phases of the training programme and on the signature of these documents, the candidate is undertaking to fully comply with the relative provisions of the same.

The scholarship awarded to the selected candidate for attendance of the Polimoda Short Course will be subject to said course being held. The course in question will be held subject to the minimum number (as established by Polimoda's Management) of enrolments being reached and therefore making the course viable to run. Confirmation will be given to the selected candidate at least 10 (ten) days before the start of the course as to whether the minimum number of enrolments necessary to activate the course has been reached, and consequently the definite assignment of the scholarship. Should the minimum number of enrolments for the Polimoda Short Course fail to be reached, the scholarship may be used by the selected candidate to cover the fee of the Polimoda Short Course (July intake 2024) in collaboration with Lorin Latarro (Mentor of the Polimoda Short Course – Summer edition).

Polimoda reserves the right to amend the aforementioned deadlines. Please always check the online version of the Regulations of the selection process.

For further information candidates can visit the website www.polimoda.com or contact orientation@polimoda.com.

Pursuant to Article 6 of Italian Presidential Decree 430 of 26.10.2001, this selection is not considered a prize competition or operation: as a result, it does not require ministerial authorisation.

Florence, 06/11/2023

Polimoda

Via Curtatone, 1 – 50123 Firenze, Italy
Tel. +39 055 275061 Fax +39 055 2750720
VAT 03758580488 Fiscal Code 94015750485
www.polimoda.com