

Regulations of the selection process and awarding of n. 2 full scholarship for attendance of the Polimoda Master Courses – the October 2026 edition

The Association Ente per le Arti applicate alla Moda e al Costume (hereinafter referred to as Polimoda), with registered office in Florence, Via Curtatone, 1, for the purpose of favouring the initiation of new studies and ideas that serve as inspiration for creative, artistic and economic development in the interests of society as a whole, and TSH Talent Foundation with registered office in Amsteldijk 166, Amsteldok Building, 6th floor, 1079LH, have decided to offer n. 2 full scholarship made available by Polimoda for the attendance of the Polimoda Master Course in Fashion Art Direction or in Creative Direction or in Luxury Retail & Business Management or in Fashion Brand Management or in Fashion Design (October 2026 edition).

The Polimoda Master Courses, which will be held in English, will have the duration of 32 weeks and will be composed of classroom lessons, starting on 12/10/2026 and ending on 05/06/2027, in addition to a 3 (three) months of internship, in which the student will participate subject to verification of the requisites established by the Polimoda Student Regulations.

Within the Polimoda scholarship, the TSH Talent Foundation will cover housing costs and provide professional and personal development opportunities. These include 30 hours of engagement through a mentorship programme, upskilling workshops, and community experience. The selected candidate will be accommodated at The Social Hub Belfiore in Florence, Viale Belfiore n. 55 for the duration of the Polimoda Master Course.

Polimoda reserves the right to not assign the scholarships.

General Admission Requirements

In order to apply for the scholarship, applicants must meet the following requirements. They must:

- have at least B2¹ level English;
- be no older than 32 (thirty-two) years old;
- be unable to bear the cost the Polimoda Master's Course;
- embody a changemaker vision - individuals with a clear intent to contribute meaningfully to society, supported by a broad plan or aspiration to achieve this goal;
- have a degree (or another equivalent qualification, or approximately two years of experience gained in the sector), or be a graduating student who has already sat all the exams in their degree course when the Polimoda Master Course begins, and who will defend their degree theses within 6 (six) months from the commencement of the classroom lessons.

A selected candidate who has not already graduated cannot, in any case, begin the period of internship and, therefore, obtain the Certification of the Polimoda Master Course (which will only be issued when the internship has been completed), until he/she has graduated.

Students who are already enrolled in a Polimoda Master course or Undergraduate course cannot participate in the selection process.

It is only possible to apply for one scholarship among those made available by Polimoda.

It is not possible to apply simultaneously for this scholarship and for one of those made available for Undergraduate courses.

It is also understood that candidates who have already applied for previous scholarships made available by Polimoda cannot participate in the selection process.

Selection process

In order to apply for the scholarship, candidates must select the Polimoda Master Course which he/she intends to attend and complete the following steps:

- Application Form submission via the Course page on Polimoda's website;

Only the candidates who obtain a certain minimum score will be taken into consideration for the whole selection process and awarding of the scholarship.

Evaluation

The selection for the assignment of the scholarship will be carried out at the sole discretion of an admission committee composed of the Department Supervisor and two Course Leading Teachers (hereinafter "the admission committee").

The admission committee will draw up a ranking of the top candidates, taking into account the documents submitted and the score obtained during the aforementioned selection process.

Only the candidates who obtain a minimum score of 28/30 will be considered for the successive selection phase during which the Polimoda Director will draw up a ranking of the top candidates, taking into account their talent and effective merits.

The scholarship will be awarded to the candidate listed at the top of the ranking. In case of equal merit amongst the candidates, precedence will be given to the candidate who first submitted the application form.

Deadline and notifications

In order to participate to the selection process, candidates are required to apply for the scholarship from 16/04/2026 to 28/04/2026.

The result of the selection process will be announced to the selected candidate no later than 08/05/2026

The selected candidate will have to give written confirmation to Polimoda of his/her intention to attend the course and accept the scholarship no later than 15/05/2026. Should the candidate listed at the top of the ranking forgo, or be unable to benefit from the scholarship for any reason, the scholarship will be awarded on the basis of the ranking working down the list.

Before the commencement of the Polimoda Master Course, the selected candidate must sign the course enrolment contract and the Polimoda Student Regulations relative to the programme for which the scholarship is assigned (please refer to the website www.polimoda.com).

The aforementioned documents will be applicable to all the phases of the training programme and on the signature of these documents, the candidate is undertaking to fully comply with the relative provisions of the same.

The selected candidate will also sign a separate contract related the accommodation at The Social Hub Belfiore in Florence with TSH Talent Foundation.

The scholarship awarded to the selected candidate for attendance of the Polimoda Master Course will be subject to said course being held. The course in question will be held subject to the minimum number (as established by Polimoda's Management) of enrolments being reached and therefore making the course viable to run. Confirmation will be given to the selected candidate at least 10 (ten) days before the start of the course as to whether the minimum number of enrolments necessary to activate the course has been reached, and consequently the definite assignment of the scholarship. Should the minimum number of enrolments for the Polimoda Master Course fail to be reached, the scholarship may be used by the selected candidate to cover the fee of another master course organised by Polimoda in the same intake (October 2026). The most appropriate course will be identified by the Polimoda Director together with the selected candidate, taking into account the aptitude, personal predisposition and curriculum vitae of the latter.

Polimoda reserves the right to amend the aforementioned deadlines. Please always check the online version of the Regulations of the selection process.
